

Econ 586: Class Presentations

Object of the In-Class Initial Presentations:

The purpose of this presentation is not to present your final paper; you'll have a chance to do that later. What you need to do in this presentation is to set the stage: (1) What is the topic that you're pursuing? (2) Why is it of interest to you and to a wider group? (3) What literature have you come across so far? (general description, not an item-by-item list)? (4) What problems have you had so far, or what problems do you see in the future?

Turn in to Prof. Turchi at the time of your presentation: (1) A short statement (1 or 2 paragraphs) stating the above; (2) A bibliography list of references that you've checked out so far. The list should contain 15 items not all of which have to be relevant. Each item should be annotated with a 1 or 2 word statement like: "not relevant" "central" "potentially useful", etc.
